Investment Policy and Objective

The Stanbic Cash Trust is an open-ended unit trust fund. The primary objective of the Fund is to maximize short to medium-term income while preserving capital, through investing in a portfolio of fixed-income securities, including treasury securities, quasi-government securities and money market investments, while keeping the maximum weighted term to maturity at 24 months.

A minimum of 80% of the Fund's assets are invested in Government and Quasi-Government debt securities and up to 20% in selected money market securities, while retaining a minimum of 5% in cash.

Risk Rating

Low	Medium	High
-----	--------	------

The slowdown in activity on the bond market and reduced access to liquidity has increased the overall risk of the fund from low to medium.

Distribution

SCT does not distribute earnings. All earnings are reinvested in the Fund which impacts the net asset value of the Fund. Investors seeking to withdraw earnings will have to sell part of their units to realize their earnings.

Fund Review and Strategy

At the end of the second quarter, the fund had total assets of approximately GHS 589 million, with 36% invested in government bonds, 7% in money market securities, and 57% in cash and near-cash. The main and sub-classes recorded year-to-date returns of 7.5% and 10.8%, respectively, against a benchmark of 14.8%. The fund is focused on remaining conservative by investing in money market securities. The sub-class prioritizes liquidity and holds fixed deposit securities with an average maturity of two months.

Market Overview

Ghana's progress towards completing its debt restructuring agreement with Eurobond holders is a significant step in its economic recovery. This is expected to alleviate foreign exchange pressures, potentially lowering interest rates and enhancing investor confidence. Election-related expenditure remains the potential headwind in the central bank's efforts to rein in inflation.
